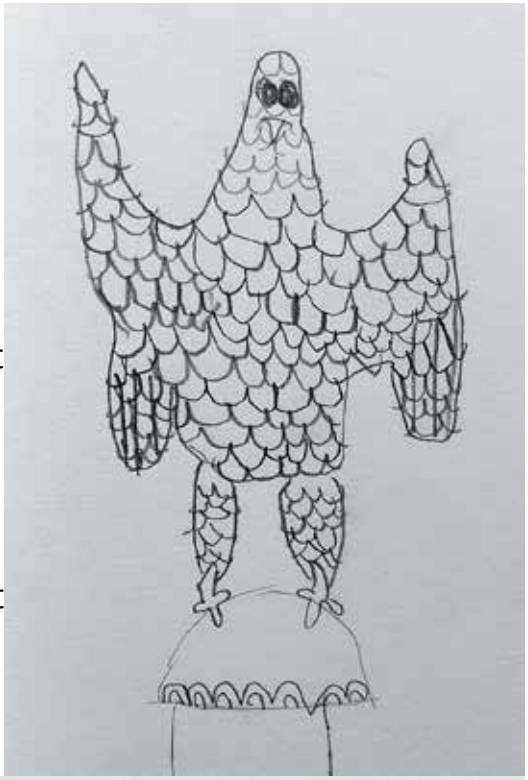
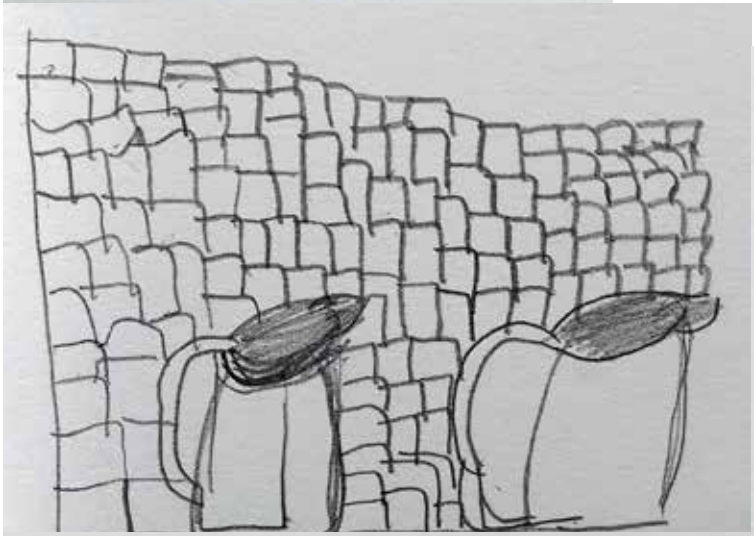
St. Edith's Church
Monks Kirby

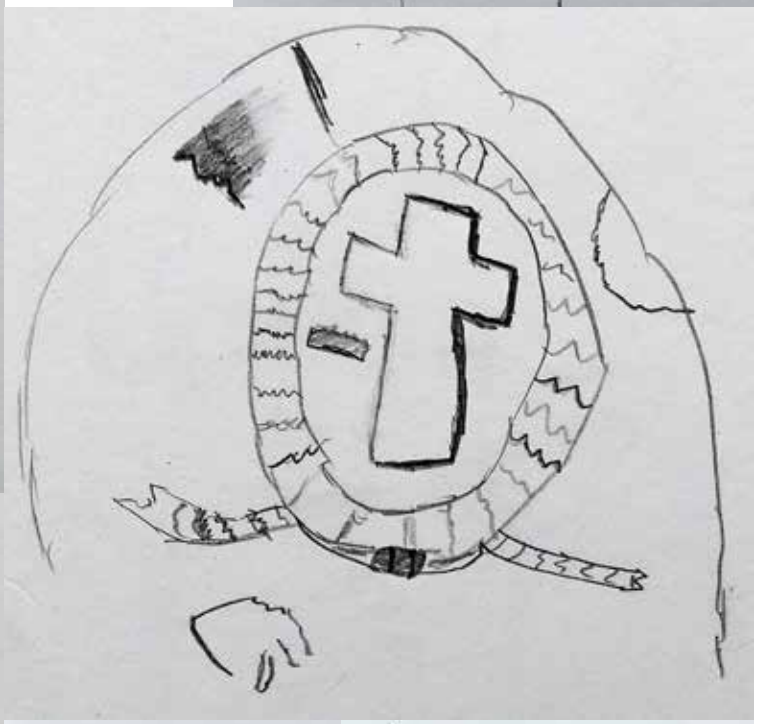
OBSERVATIONAL DRAWING

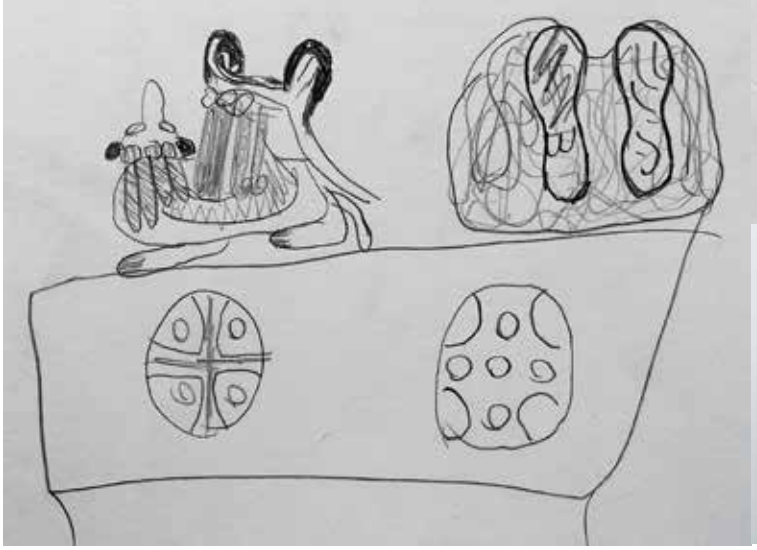
Here are some drawing made of objects in other churches

Observational drawing means you sit in front of an actual object and draw what you see.

To understand what to draw you must look for a long time at the object. That way you will get to know what something actually looks like.








Use a pencil and don't worry about rubbing marks out.